다음 글의 제목으로 가장 적절한 것은?¹ [21년 6월 21번]

We have a tendency to interpret events selectively. If we want things to be "this way" or "that way" we can most certainly select, stack, or arrange evidence in a way that supports such a viewpoint. Selective perception is based on what seems to us to stand out. However, what seems to us to be standing out may very well be related to our goals, interests, expectations, past experiences, or current demands of the situation - "with a hammer in hand, everything looks like a nail." This quote highlights the phenomenon of selective perception. If we want to use a hammer, then the world around us may begin to look as though it is full of nails!

- ① How to Select the Best Hammer
- ② Understanding Human Perception
- ③ The Importance of Proper Selection
- ④ How Do We Use 'Nail It' in a Sentence?
- ⑤ How Selective Perception Affects Our Perspective of the World
