M: Yes, we talked about the festival booths. We'll only have twenty booths this year.

W: That's far less than we had last year.

M: Selling food is not allowed starting from this year. Maybe that's why fewer clubs are running booths.

W: Really? Why isn't it allowed?

M: Because, last year, some students and parents complained about the garbage and smell from all the food.

W: Oh, many students will be disappointed. They love the festival's food.

[16 ~ 17] 다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

W: Good morning, everyone. Spring's here and more people are interested in getting into shape. But it's not easy to find time to go to the gym. There are some good ways to exercise in your daily life. At the office, set your alarm so that you can stand up every hour. Do simple exercises before sitting back down. When you commute, walk, walk, and walk. Get off the bus a few stops ahead and walk. At the subway station, walk around the platform while waiting for a train. In the shopping mall, make it a rule to go around the whole mall at least twice before you make a decision. Two hours of shopping burns as much as 300 calories. At home, dance or do some stretching exercises while you're watching TV in your living room. Remember: The more you move your body, the healthier and happier you get!
