다음을 듣고, 남자가 하는 말의 목적으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

[Chime bell rings.]

M: Good morning. This is Ethan Cooper from the Reindeer Mountain maintenance office. Last night, we had 20cm of heavy snow. Most of the snow melted away with the sun out in the morning, but some of it froze in the shade. For hikers' safety, we've closed some of the trails covered with ice. At this moment, Sunrise Trail and Lakeview Trail are unavailable for hikers. I'll make an announcement later when the trails are ready to be reopened. Until then, keep in mind that Sunrise Trail and Lakeview Trail are closed. Thank you.

대화를 듣고, 남자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Honey, what are you doing?
W: I'm looking for the measuring spoons. Do you know where they are?
M: They're in the first drawer. Why do you need them?
W: The recipe says four teaspoons of sugar.
M: Dear, you don't have to follow the recipe as it is.
W: What do you mean?
M: A recipe is just an example. You don't need to add the same amount of ingredients as stated in the recipe.
W: Hmm. Right. Sometimes the food is too sweet when I cook based on the recipe instructions.
M: See? You don't need to stick to the recipe.
W: Okay. I'll remember that.

[Door knocks.]

W: Can I come in?

M: Yes. Oh, Ms. Smith. Did you read the email I sent?

W: I did. I liked your game scenario. The characters exploring space were very mysterious. How did you create the characters?

M: Actually, old science fiction movies inspired me to design those characters.

W: Interesting. Now, could you describe the main character more specifically? It'll be helpful when I compose the theme song for the character.

M: Well, he's a thrill seeker. So, a strong, bold, and rhythmic sound would suit him.

W: Okay. Do you need anything else?

M: I also want you to make some background music.

W: Of course. When do you need them?

M: By December 21st. I'd like to start putting the music into the game by then.

W: All right. Then I'll talk to you later.

M: They look very stylish. And I like the flower picture above the sofa. It'll bring warmth to your room.

W: Thanks. Check out the square-shaped rug on the floor.

M: It goes well with this place. Oh, there is a bookshelf by the sofa.

다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

W: Good morning, students. These days we can easily send messages to each other using phones or computers. However, communication has not always been as simple as it is today. Here are a few ways people in the past used to carry their messages. First, some tribes used a special drum. They were able to send warnings or important information by varying the pitch or beat. Next, other people used smoke to send messages over long distances. For example, our ancestors used smoke to signal attacks from enemies. Third, a pigeon was a reliable means of communication. It always found its way home with messages attached to its legs. Finally, a horse was one of the most efficient ways to communicate. The horse with a messenger on its back delivered mail more quickly than runners. Now you may understand the ways of sending messages back in the old days. Then let's take a look in detail at each communication method.
