다음 빈칸에 공통으로 들어갈 말로 가장 적절한 것은?1

[2020년 9월 20번]

Any goal you set is going to be difficult to achieve, and you will certainly be _____ at some points along the way. So why not set your goals much higher than you consider worthy from the beginning? If they are going to require work, effort, and energy, then why not exert 10 times as much of each? What if you are underestimating your capabilities? You might be protesting, saying, "What of the disappointment that comes from setting unrealistic goals?" However, take just a few moments to look back over your life. Chances are that you have more often been _____ by setting targets that are too low and achieving them — only to be shocked that you still didn't get what you wanted.
