

고1_ 2018[기출문제] 41~42

다음 글의 내용을 한 문장으로 요약하고자 한다. 빈칸 (A), (B)에 들어갈 말을 본문에서 찾아 각각 한 단어씩 쓰시오.¹

[H1-1806 41-42번]

Hundreds of thousands of people journeyed far to take part in the Canadian fur trade. Many saw how inhabitants of the northern regions stored their food in the winter – by burying the meats and vegetables in the snow. But probably few of them had thoughts about how this custom might relate to other fields. One who did was a young man named Clarence Birdseye. He was amazed to find that freshly caught fish and duck, frozen quickly in such a fashion, kept their taste and texture. He started wondering: Why can't we sell food in America that operates on the same basic principle? With this thought, the frozen foods industry was born. He made something extraordinary from what, for the northern folk, was the ordinary practice of preserving food. So, what went on in his mind when he observed this means of storage? Something mysterious happened in his curious, fully engaged mind. Curiosity is a way of adding value to what you see. In the case of Birdseye, it was strong enough to lift him out of the routine way of seeing things. It set the stage for innovation and discovery, for coming up with something new.

↓

Thanks to his (A)_____, Clarence Birdseye is recognized as a forerunner in the frozen foods industry as a result of his ability to see the wonder in the Canadian custom of (B)_____ foods with their taste and texture.

정답: (A) _____

(B) _____

다음 글의 빈칸에 들어갈 말로 가장 적절한 것은? [H1-1806 41번]

Hundreds of thousands of people journeyed far to take part in the Canadian fur trade. Many saw how inhabitants of the northern regions stored their food in the winter—by burying the meats and vegetables in the snow. But probably few of them had thoughts about how this custom might relate to other fields. one who did was a young man named Clarence Birdseye. He was amazed to find that freshly caught fish and duck, frozen quickly in such a fashion, kept their taste and texture. He started wondering: Why can't we sell food in America that operates on the same basic principle? With this thought, the frozen foods industry was born. he made something extraordinary from what, for the northern folk, was the ordinary practice of preserving food. So, what went on in his mind when he observed this means of storage? Something mysterious happened in his curious, fully engaged mind. Curiosity is a way of adding value to what you see. In the case of Birdseye, it was strong enough to involve him in the _____ way of seeing things. It set the stage for innovation and discovery, for coming up with something new.

- ① extreme
- ② negative
- ③ logical
- ④ unique
- ⑤ routine

다음 글의 빈칸에 들어갈 말로 가장 적절한 것은? [18년 6월 41번]

Hundreds of thousands Of people journeyed far to take part in the Canadian fur trade. Many saw how inhabitants of the northern regions stored their food in the winter—by burying the meats and vegetables in the snow. But probably few of them' had thoughts about how, this custom might relate to other fields. One who did was a young man named Clarence Birdeye. He was amazed to find that freshly caught-fish and duck. frozen quickly in such a fashion. kept their taste and texture. He started Wondering: Why can't we sell food in America that operates on the same basic principle? With this thought, the frozen foods industry was born. He made something extraordinary from what. for the northern folk, was the Ordinary practice of preserving food. So, what went on in his mind when he observed this Means of storage? Something mysterious happened in his curious, fully engaged mind. Curiosity is a way of adding value to what you see. In the case of Birdeye, _____. It set the stage for innovation and discovery, for coming up with something new.

- ① his curiosity drove him to think outside the box
- ② he could not notice anything out of the ordinary
- ③ it was very helpful to see things in the routine way
- ④ he could understand they say curiosity killed the cat
- ⑤ it was important for him to take a class at school to improve his curiosity

다음 글의 흐름으로 보아, 주어진 문장이 들어가기에 가장 적절한 곳은?³ [H1-1806 41~42번]

But probably few of them had thoughts about how this custom might relate to other fields.

Hundreds of thousands of people journeyed far to take part in the Canadian fur trade. Many saw how inhabitants of the northern regions stored their food in the winter—by burying the meats and vegetables in the snow. (A) One who did was a young man named Clarence Birdseye. He was amazed to find that freshly caught fish and duck, frozen quickly in such a fashion, kept their taste and texture. (B) He started wondering: Why can't we sell food in America that operates on the same basic principle? With this thought, the frozen foods industry was born. He made something extraordinary from what, for the northern folk, was the ordinary practice of preserving food. (C) So, what went on in his mind when he observed this means of storage? Something mysterious happened in his curious, fully engaged mind. (D) Curiosity is a way of adding value to what you see. In the case of Birdseye, it was strong enough to lift him out of the routine way of seeing things. (A) It set the stage for innovation and discovery, for coming up with something new.

- ① A ② B ③ C ④ D ⑤ E

다음 글의 밑줄 친 부분 중 문맥상 낱말의 쓰임이 적절하지 않은 것은?⁴ [H1-1806 41-42번]

Hundreds of thousands of people journeyed far to take part in the Canadian fur trade. Many saw how inhabitants of the northern regions commonly stored their food in the winter—by burying the meats and vegetables in the snow. But probably few of them had thoughts about how this custom might relate to other fields. One who did was a young man named Clarence Birdseye. He was amazed to find that freshly caught fish and duck, frozen quickly in such a fashion, kept their taste and texture. He started wondering: Why can't we sell food in America that operates on the same basic principle? With this thought, the frozen foods industry was born. He made something remarkable from what, for the northern folk, was the extraordinary practice of preserving food. So, what went on in his mind when he observed this means of storage? Something mysterious happened in his curious, fully engaged mind. Curiosity is a way of adding value to what you see. In the case of Birdseye, it was strong enough to lift him out of the everyday way of seeing things. It set the stage for innovation and discovery, for coming up with something new

- ① a ② b ③ c ④ d ⑤ e

다음 글의 괄호 (A), (B), (C) 안에서 문맥에 맞는 낱말로 가장 적절한 것은? [18년 6월 41번]

Hundreds of thousands of people journeyed far to take part in the Canadian fur trade. Many saw how inhabitants of the northern regions stored their food in the winter—by burying the meats and vegetables in the snow. But probably few of them had thoughts about how this (A)[custom / costume] might relate to other fields. One who did was a young man named Clarence Birdseye. He was amazed to find that freshly caught fish and duck, frozen quickly in such a fashion, kept their taste and texture. He started wondering: Why can't we sell food in America that operates on the same basic principle? With this thought, the frozen foods industry was born. He made something (B)[ordinary / extraordinary] from what, for the northern folk, was the usual practice of preserving food. So, what went on in his mind when he observed this means of storage? Something mysterious happened in his curious, fully engaged mind. He noticed an idea in one environment and (C)[classified / transplanted] it into a different environment. His curiosity added value to what he saw. And it set the stage for innovation and discovery, for coming up with something new.

- | (A) | (B) | (C) |
|-----------|---------------|--------------|
| ① custom | ordinary | classified |
| ② costume | ordinary | transplanted |
| ③ custom | extraordinary | classified |
| ④ costume | extraordinary | classified |
| ⑤ custom | extraordinary | transplanted |

정답

1 (A) curiosity / (B) frozen, burying, storing, preserving (모두 정답 인정)

2 ④

3 ①

4 ④

5 ⑤