ANN: 이제 시작하겠습니다.

1번 대화를 듣고, 여자의 마지막 말에 대한 남자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Michael, what's up? You look so frustrated.

M: I forgot to bring my USB flash drive. I have to save the files that I worked on here in the computer lab.

W: I have an extra. Do you want to use it?

M: _____

2번 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Linda, have you chosen whose biology class you're going to take next semester?

W: Not yet, but I have to take one. Any suggestions?

M: Many friends recommended I take professor Brown's class. Why don't we take it together?

W: _____

3번 대화를 듣고, 여자의 마지막 말에 대한 남자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Thomas, what are you doing now?

M: I'm working on the fine art portfolio due tomorrow. Did you finish it?

W: Didn't you see the notice? The due date has been changed to next Friday.

M: _____

4번 다음을 듣고, 여자가 하는 말의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Hello, everyone. I'm Grace Kim of Listeners' Club. You might not be used to listening to audiobooks, but it has some advantages over reading printed books. One advantage is that you can listen to an audiobook anytime, like while driving, walking, or cooking. Second, kids who can't read yet can also enjoy books by listening to them. Last, you don't need to carry heavy books. You only need a portable device to save and listen to thousands of books. So, how about listening to your next book?

5번 다음을 듣고, 남자가 하는 말의 목적으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Hello, students. I'm Jake Anderson, the head of this dormitory. I'd like to talk about one very important rule that you should follow in the lounges. The lounges on each floor are common spaces for everyone. Eating snacks or other food is not allowed there. However, some students have food and even leave their food garbage in the lounges. The smell of food can be unpleasant to others, and food waste can attract insects. Please make sure you don't eat food in the lounges. Remember you're sharing these areas with a lot of people. Thank you for your cooperation.

6번 대화를 듣고, 여자의 주장으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Wow! What a beautiful place!

M: I didn't know we have such a great heritage site in our town.

W: Me, neither. I don't understand why this place hasn't been better introduced to the public.

M: You're right. Not very many people know about this place.

W: Right. We should promote the heritage sites like this actively.

M: Yeah. They are our precious heritage.

W: Sure. I think heritage sites need active promotion, like online ads and brochures.

M: I totally agree with you. Then people would have more interest in them.

W: I think more people will visit heritage sites if they're actively promoted.

7번 대화를 듣고, 남자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Hi, Sarah. Where were you?

W: Hi, Ryan. I went to a Thai restaurant to eat noodles. I missed the taste I had in Thailand last winter.

M: They were probably a little different than you remember, right?

W: Yeah, I felt like something was missing this time. How did you know?

M: I read an article that said feelings changed by travel can work up our appetite.

W: Even if it's the same dish?

M: Yes. Travel changes our mood and it positively stimulates our desire to eat. I had a similar experience.

W: I see. It wasn't the food that was different.

M: Right. Traveling can practically affect our taste.

W: Then I might have to travel again for noodles.

8번 대화를 듣고, 두 사람의 관계를 가장 잘 나타낸 것을 고르시오.

M: Nice to meet you, Ms. Davis.

W: Same here, Mr. Wilson. I saw your show last winter.

M: You did? I loved your latest work. I heard it sold a million copies.

W: Thanks so much. And thanks for taking some time to talk with me.

M: My pleasure. You had some interesting questions about my magic in the email you sent me.

W: Right. I emailed you because I'm writing a novel about magic.

M: I see. I was excited to receive an email from such a famous person.

W: Thank you. I can't wait to hear your stories about performing magic.

M: All right. I'll tell you about it now.

W: Great. Do you mind if I record our conversation?

M: Not at all. Shall we start?

9번 다음 그림의 상황에 가장 적절한 대화를 고르시오.

M: You need to push the button to open the door.

W: Oh, I thought it would open automatically.

W: Number Two

W: Thanks. My grandmother painted it for me.

W: Number Three

M: Oh, I can't find my wallet.

W: Go back to your car and check if it's there.

W: Number Four

M: Can you please help me set the table?

W: Sure, tell me what to do first.

W: Number Five

M: Sorry, I broke the vase by mistake.

W: It's okay as long as you didn't get hurt.

10번 대화를 듣고, 여자가 남자를 위해 할 일로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Hi, Greg. Are you ready for Emily's potluck party?

M: No, I haven't decided what to bring. How about you?

W: I'm not good at cooking, so I bought some sweets and desserts.

M: That was smart. I should have done that.

W: What about bringing beverages then?

M: That's a good idea! Do you know how many people will be at the party?

W: I heard there will be around 15.

M: Then, I'll buy sparkling water and orange juice for 15 people.

W: That's going to be heavy. I'll give you a ride if you want.

M: Yes, please. How kind of you.

11번 대화를 듣고, 남자가 여행을 가지 못하는 이유로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Hey, Bryan. How was your final exam?

M: Not bad. But I'm glad the exam is over. Do you have any plans for summer vacation?

W: I don't have any plans yet. You said you're going to travel, right?

M: Well... I don't think I can do that this vacation.

W: You had a part-time job to save for it. Haven't you got enough money?

M: I've saved enough, but I don't have time for a trip.

W: Why? Are you going to take classes at summer school?

M: No, I'm not. But, I applied for a summer internship and got the job.

W: Congratulations! I didn't know you were interested in an internship.

M: Well, I want to get some work experience before I graduate.

W: I see. I should try it next time.

M: Yeah, that's a good idea.

12번 대화를 듣고, 여자가 지불할 금액을 고르시오.

M: Good afternoon. How can I help you?

W: Hi, I'm looking for a bluetooth keyboard for my computer.

M: I recommend this one. It's convenient since it's foldable.

W: It looks expensive. How much is it?

M: It's 30 dollars.

W: That's reasonable. I'll take it. Do you have a wireless mouse, too?

M: Sure. It's 10 dollars. You can choose the color, white or black.

W: I'll take the white one.

M: Good. Since you're buying this with the keyboard, you can have 10 percent off of the total.

W: Perfect. Here's my credit card.

13번 대화를 듣고, One Globe Class에 관해 언급되지 않은 것을 고르시오.

W: Hi, Eugene. Did you see the ad about One Globe Class?

M: No, I didn't. One Globe Class? What is it?

W: It's a global citizenship education class. It tells us how we're connected to the world.

M: Sounds interesting. When is the class?

W: Four thirty to six, from April 19th to 23rd.

M: Can anyone apply? Do I need any special qualifications?

W: It just says anyone who is able to attend all the classes can apply.

M: Thanks for the information.

You can explore caves and white sand beaches here in this park. You can also borrow a camping tent from the park headquarters if you want to stay longer here. There are many activities, like snorkeling and hiking, you can enjoy. One activity you can't miss is climbing up to the park's observatory, which is open all day long. You'll be rewarded with an awesome view of the park. Enjoy your visit.

15번 다음 표를 보면서 대화를 듣고, 남자가 주문할 수조를 고르시오.

W: What are you doing on the Internet, Sean?

M: I'm trying to buy a fish tank. Didn't you say you bought one last month?

W: Yes. Do you want me to help you find a good one?

M: Sure. First of all, my budget is less than 50 dollars.

W: Okay. How many liters do you want?

M: I don't want a small fish tank. I think the size should be bigger than five liters.

W: Then which material do you prefer, glass or plastic?

M: Well, which one do you think is better?

W: I've used both of them but I like plastic fish tanks. They're stronger than glass ones.

M: I think I should follow your advice. Now I have two options left.

W: Yeah. I read a book about organization skills and decided to get rid of things that I don't use.

M: I saw a TV program about the same skills. I was thinking of trying it.

W: Why not? After starting to organize unnecessary things, I found it has helped me a lot.

M: Like how?

W: I have more space. And it's easier to find the things I do use.

M: Yeah, that would feel good. I think I'm interested in doing it.

W: Good for you. Why don't you give it a try?

M: _____

17번 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Honey, can we talk about a plan for our holidays?

M: Sure. Do you have a particular place you want to go?

W: I was thinking of going abroad to a remote tropical island. We can stay warm and enjoy swimming in the ocean.

M: We went to a similar place last year. I remember we were exhausted after a long flight.

W: That's true. We both had a hard time going back to work the very next day.

M: Then, how about visiting a place near home this year?

W: Well, are there any good places nearby?

M: A local resort like Kings Village could be good. It's just a one-hour drive from home.

W: I agree. We don't have to spend a lot of time at the airport and on flights.

M: Plus, we can save on travel expenses.

W: _____

【19-20】 다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

W: Good morning, History of Food listeners. Did you know that some of the fruits we enjoy today didn't look the same in the past? For example, the color of the first oranges wasn't actually orange. The original oranges from Southeast Asia were green. Moreover, whereas today's watermelons are usually bright red inside, paintings of early watermelons in the 17th century tell us that they were pale in color. About 7,000 years ago, bananas also looked totally different. Bananas had two varieties. One of them had harder and larger seeds, and thicker skin. Finally, unlike the peaches we eat today, peaches around 4,000 BCE used to be much smaller in size. We'll come back right after a commercial break, so please stay tuned.

19번 여자가 하는 말의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.
