듣기평가 대본

1. 다음을 듣고, 여자가 하는 말의 목적으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Good morning, Staton High School students! This is Jessica Mcqueen, the vice principal. As you know, tomorrow, two vending machines will be installed next to the school library. Now, I'd like to inform you of the rules you have to follow when using them. First, use them only during break times. You can not use them as an excuse for being late for classes. Second, after eating or drinking, throw trash away in the trash can. No one wants a dirty school. Third, do not kick or push the vending machines. If they don't work, just call the number on the machine. Please keep these rules in mind. Thank you.

2. 대화를 듣고, 남자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Dylan, what are you doing?

M: I'm learning about the history of Rome.

W: Hmm... But you are reading a comic book, aren't you?

M: Yes, it's a comic book about history. It's very helpful.

W: I think reading a general history book would be more helpful.

M: Maybe. But learning history through comic books has many good points.

W: Why do you think so?

M: Comic books use pictures to convey information, so you can understand historical events more easily and remember them for a long time.

W: That makes sense. Anything else?

M: Most importantly, comic books are interesting to read.

W: I see. Then I'll give it a try.

3. 대화를 듣고, 두 사람의 관계를 가장 잘 나타낸 것을 고르시오.

M: Yes. I've studied ways to make Italian dishes more delicious since 1990.

W: That's amazing. Actually, many viewers have been asking for pasta recipes.

M: Great. I'll teach you how to make tomato bacon pasta today.

W: Isn't that one of the most popular dishes in your restaurant?

M: Right. I'll let you know how to make delicious pasta in an easy way.

W: Fantastic! Also, the recipe will be uploaded to our website after the show.

M: That will be helpful for the viewers who miss the show.

W: Great. Can you tell me what to prepare for the dish?

W: Okay. Let's start cooking!

W: Sure. The banner hanging on the wall looks good.

M: Thanks. Do you recognize the drawing of the car above the chair?

W: That's Tina's work. I saw her drawing it earlier.

M: You're right. What do you think about the flower vase on the table?
I made it.

W: You did a great job. By the way, why is there a soccer ball on the floor?

M: That was for visitors to paint. See, those children are painting it.

W: That must have been a fun experience. Oh, look at the bird sculpture on the shelf! It seems so real!

M: It's so expensive. Anything else?

W: This toy car is last year's model, but it moves by remote control. It costs $60.

M: I like it. Do you have any other good things?

W: The newest speaking doll was released yesterday.

M: It looks cute. How much is it?

W: Sorry, I can't make it that day.

M: Why? Do you have to prepare your presentation for biology class?

W: No, I finished it yesterday.

M: Ah, you said your mother's birthday is coming up, right?

W: Actually, her birthday is next week.

M: Then, what are you doing on Saturday?

W: That's meaningful. And we can enjoy the beautiful city views at night. Why don't we join it?

M: All right. Let's do it.

W: Great. Look. There are two walking courses we can choose from, a 5km course and a 10km one.

Two native English-speaking teachers will join the camp and lead the discussions. To take part in the camp, you must register online at our library's website in advance. You can join us for free if you are a member of our library, but if you are not a member, you'll have to pay $15. W: Let's see. [Pause] We should not choose the plastic one. It is likely to break easily.

M: You're right. And, how many shelves do we need?

W: Not many. We don't have that many books, so three or four would be enough.

M: I agree. Let's choose the color now.

W: I think a red bookcase would be pretty and colorful.

M: Red is good, but it doesn't match our furniture. White would be a better choice.
