Loki went to see the three gods with all the treasures. Brokk came along. Loki showed them the treasures from Ivaldi's sons. The first treasure was for Odin, who had only one eye. ㉓ It was a spear that never missed its target. The second treasure was a big ship that could turn into a piece of cloth. It was for Frey. The third treasure was for Thor. Loki showed Thor the flowing golden hair for his wife. Thor put the hair on his wife's head, and ㉔ it took root and become real hair.

It was now Brokk's turn to show the gods his gifts. ㉕ He gave Odin a gold arm ring that produced eight more gold rings every ninth night. Brokk then gave Frey a pig. ㉖ It could pull his carriage faster than any horse.

"My third treasure is for you, Thor," said Brokk. "This is the hammer Mjolnir, (가) which you'll love. If you throw it, it'll always come back to you. Moreover, nothing can ever break it."

It was an easy decision to choose the greatest treasure. ㉗ It was Mjolnir that the three gods liked most. They thought the hammer would protect the gods from their enemies.

"Brokk and his brother," said Odin, "are the better smiths."

Brokk proved that Loki was wrong, and the three gods now had precious treasures.
