1. 다음을 듣고, 남자가 하는 말의 목적으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Hello, visitors! I'm Henry Stratton, Manager of Wellington Park. I'd like to ask you to keep in mind a few things when you're walking your dog in the park. First of all, please pick up after your dog. No one likes to step on dog waste, and it can transfer infectious particles to other dogs or even to people. Cleaning up after your dog is the price of walking your dog in this beautiful park. There is one more thing. Always make sure to keep your dog on a leash. We're getting more complaints about unleashed dogs these days. Please watch your dog and keep it under control at all times. Your neighbors will appreciate your thoughtfulness. Thank you.

2. 대화를 듣고, 여자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Honey, are you reading that magazine on interior design?

M: Yes. We talked about making some changes around the house. Remember?

W: Of course. I can't wait to give our house a new look.

M: I'm thinking of changing the color of the walls and replacing the old tiles and doors.

W: Good idea. Do you know any good interior designers?

M: Well, I thought we could save money if we did it ourselves.

W: I disagree. If we're not happy with the work we've done, we'll eventually have to hire someone to fix it.

M: Hmm.... In that case, we could end up spending more money.

W: Also, think of all the time and energy we'll have to put in. Let's get the professionals to do it for us.

M: You're right. We can discuss what we want with them.

W: There's a reason people hire professionals to renovate their house.

M: Okay. I'll ask around and find someone.

3. 대화를 듣고, 두 사람의 관계를 가장 잘 나타낸 것을 고르시오.

M: Hello, Ms. Sandburg. I'm glad you made it here. Please come on in.

W: Good morning. Thanks for meeting me so early in the morning.

M: No problem. Is this the bike you mentioned on the phone?

W: Yes. This is my mom's old bike.

M: It's a beautiful classic road bicycle. Let me take a look. [Pause] It looks like it hasn't been used for a long time.

W: Right. It's been kept in the garage at my parents' farmhouse for years.

M: Still it's in pretty good shape, but some parts need to be replaced.

W: I figured. Can you still get original parts for this model?

M: I'll try. But if I can't, I'll be able to find other ones that could work.

W: Okay. It also needs a thorough cleaning. Do you do that, too?

M: Of course. The cleaning will take another day or two.

W: Thanks. Give me a call when you're finished.

4. 대화를 듣고, 그림에서 대화의 내용과 일치하지 않는 것을 고르시오.

W: Hey, Ben. I hear you're back from Surf School. How was it?

W: Let me see. [Pause] Oh, there are surfboards leaning on the back wall.

M: The bigger ones are for beginners, and the smaller ones are for more skilled surfers.

W: Interesting. The wetsuits are hanging under the sign that says SURF SCHOOL. Are those for rent?

M: Yes. People can put on their wetsuits in the changing room. See the door next to the wetsuits?

W: Yeah. What's that big round basket on the floor for?

M: It's for people to return their used wetsuits.

W: Who is the surfer in the poster on the left wall?

M: He's a legendary surfing champion.

W: Wow. I would love to go to Surf School someday.

M: It's a book based on my life as a vegan.

W: That's great. When you finish writing, I'd love to read it. I'm a vegan, too.

M: Okay, I'll send you a copy. I think you'll like the special section that introduces easy-to-cook vegan recipes.

W: That'd be useful. It's not easy to find those.

M: That's what I mean. I'm looking for some good vegan kimchi recipes.

M: Oh, I didn't know you had private lessons.

W: We do, actually. It's a one-hour session for children.

M: I think my younger one needs a lesson. He is not very confident on the ice yet.

W: Good choice. So you're signing up for a private lesson for just one of your children.

M: That's right. How much is the lesson fee?

W: It's $15. How would you like to pay?

M: I'll pay with my credit card.

W: That's okay. I just assumed you were occupied with something important.

W: Oh, I guess you had a problem accessing the Internet on the train.

M: No, the Internet was fine and the train had wifi.

W: Then, were you too busy and lost track of time?

M: No. When I took out my phone to join, the person next to me hit my hand with his bag.

W: Oh, no! Did you drop your phone?

M: Yes. The screen totally cracked, and my phone wasn't working anymore.

W: I'm so sorry to hear that.

M: So, there was no way I could join the conference.

W: I understand. I'll share the details of the morning conference later.

8. 대화를 듣고, Jazz Guitar Contest에 관해 언급되지 않은 것을 고르시오.

W: Hey, Tim. What are you doing on your phone?

M: Oh, Cathy. I'm applying for the Jazz Guitar Contest.

W: Yes, but I don't want to buy this one. I'd like to stay under $100.

M: I see. How about we take a look at these four?

W: Yeah. How many levels would you recommend?

M: Usually, the more levels the better.

W: Then I'll go with something that has five levels.

16번부터 17번은 두 번 들려줍니다.

[16 ~ 17] 다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

W: Last class we learned about the origins of different cooking oils. Today, I'd like to focus on vegetable oils and what good characteristics they have. First, coconut oil. Fats from coconut oil easily convert to energy. They help boost metabolism and aid in weight loss. Second, olive oil. It contains natural vitamins and minerals and of course, it's a nutritious staple of the Mediterranean diet. Next, sesame oil. It's loaded with antioxidants that slow down cell aging. It's also known to lower blood pressure and reduce wrinkles. If you find these three oils rather expensive, there's a reasonable alternative, which is grapeseed oil. This is a great source of essential fatty acids and vitamin E. Its high smoking point works well for any cooking method such as roasting and frying. Before we move on, I'd like to mention one more oil. Walnut oil contains omega-3 fatty acids and minerals like iron and zinc. Its rich flavor can add a kick to your salad. Now, let's look into each of these oils in detail.
